We look forward to the future with confidence that we shall realize our anticipations of increased usefulness, and to the time when a stronger financial condition with a largely increased "Permanent Fund" through donations and legacies, will help us meet more fully the urgent demands for improved facilities.

It is with deep regret that the Trustees record the death of a highly esteemed and honored member of the Board, for many years its chairman, Samuel Wells, who died Oct. 3, 1903.

Mr. Walter Hunnewell was elected a Trustee to fill the vacancy on the Board.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

To insure the financial success of a society or organization that depends in a large measure upon the kindness of friends interested in the work, the finances must be carefully guarded and wisely expended. This has always been the earnest endeavor of your Committee on Finance, and they congratulate the society upon the condition of the resources during the past year.

The important work of the Union has been carried on successfully in all its departments, religious, moral, benevolent, educational, social, and physical; and for the kindness of the many friends who by their financial assistance have made this possible the Committee wish to express their gratitude and thanks.

Many of these friends have called in person or forwarded amounts, by mail or otherwise, to William H. Baldwin, President (Chairman of the Finance Committee), at his office in the Union Building, 48 Boylston Street.

The ready and cheerful responses, and the many words of interest in the Union and its work, freely expressed by these friends and others, give us renewed courage to go forward in the interest and welfare of the thousands of young men in our city.

In order to keep our work more fully up to date and to meet the ever-increasing demands for improvements in the various departments, more funds could be used to advantage; and, should friends wish at any time during the year to respond with donations for "General Purposes" of the Union, we assure them their kindness will be appreciated.

All amounts received will be entered in the "Book of Donors," and receipts sent by mail or given at the time.

The Committee present (on the next page) the financial statement by the Treasurer, William L. Richardson.

COMMITTEE ON LECTURES, CLASSES, AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

LECTURES, CLASSES, [AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

The functions of the Committee on Lectures, Classes, and Entertainments embrace the supervision of the Educational Work, the provision for healthful and elevating entertainments, and the establishment of Lecture Courses on Travel and like subjects.

The class work is in direct charge of Mr. Edward A. Church, of this Committee; and his very interesting report follows. Our facilities for evening school work are not as extended as we might wish, but the results obtained are eminently satisfactory.

Classes are held in the Languages, Drawing, Law, Arithmetic, Elocution, English Literature, and a Debating and Stenographic Club, all with large memberships.

In the entertainment field we have offered to our members a variety that has pleased,—Amateur Dramatic Performances, Light Opera, Song Recitals, Illustrated Lectures and Concerts.

The list of performers includes many talented artists of this city and vicinity, and their efforts on each Wednesday night of the season have been warmly applauded.

Their services have been of a volunteer nature, and the interest manifested by these numerous friends in our welfare and pleasure warrants more than a passing word of thanks.

Some of the performers were Union members, and on the occasions of their appearance were always greeted by large and loyal houses.

Our Lecture Courses are also of permanent value ; and those upon Travel, superbly illustrated by stereopticon, gave wide instruction to large audiences.

The Curator is entitled to a word of praise for the admirable arrangements of the many entertainments, and it is worthy of note that never has an audience been disappointed in the schedule as arranged.

Term, twenty weeks, beginning Nov. 2, 1903. One lesson per week in every class. Fee, $1.00, returnable (to Union members) at close of term, less ten cents for every unexcused absence.

The educational work of the Union is an important feature of our winter season, and offers excellent advantages for self-improvement. We attempt no competition with established schools, but aim to reach those who lack time for the more thorough and extended courses of study. Able teachers are secured, specialists in their respective branches; and we endeavor to keep our small curriculum up to date, and to present the various studies as attractively as is practicable.

The increased interest in the city's Evening Schools has apparently had some effect upon our class membership during the past season, and the severity of the weather has occasionally lessened the attendance; but, on the whole, the term has been a successful one, and the interest in the several classes has been such that supplementary courses have been arranged.

As an instance of appreciation, we quote from a pupil's letter:—

“I wish to thank the Union for the opportunity it has given me to learn German under the splendid teaching of Professor Adams. I should not have believed it possible to have learned so much in such a short time.”

There are few changes to note, the most important being the addition of a class for the study of vocal music. This is called the Union Choral Club, and has been under the able charge of Mr. Herbert F. Odell.

Our teachers remain the same as the previous season, with one exception. Mr. Joseph A. Frizzell, who has for many years taught Mechanical Drawing in our classes, and who has been highly popular and successful, has retired. His successor is Mr. W. H. Porter, who has efficiently filled the place.

The other classes and clubs have continued with the same general methods as before, and have added to the excellent reputations they had previously made with our public.

The Union does not propose to let the interest in its Evening Classes slacken, and it is hoped that another season will see this department made more attractive and profitable than ever.

RECEPTION ROOM AND OFFICE.
(Public Anniversary Reception.)

ANNIVERSARY AND RECEPTION.

This yearly event, which occurs at the most delightful season of the year, proved, as usual, very successful, about two thousand members and friends attending.

This affair held Thursday evening, May 21, 1903, brought to a close the fifty-second year of our life, and the occasion showed the scope of our work to be larger than ever before in its history.

President Baldwin received at the entrance of the Directors' Room, assisted by his fellow Directors, Messrs. Sprague, Peirce, Dugan, Locke, Burrill, Ainsley, Brown, and Frost; and, as all ages, old and young, filed by the President he had a cheery word for each and all.

Music was furnished in the large and spacious Library by Odell's Concert Orchestra, and in The Union Hall the Langham Mandolin Orchestra with the Adelphi Quartette furnished music throughout the evening; and at its end all joined in singing "America."

All the departments of the Union were thrown open to visitors. One of the most popular features of the reception was the exhibition given in the Gymnasium, consisting of jumping, tumbling, horizontal bar, wrestling, and other exercises. Music in this department was furnished by The Union Orchestra. Specimens of the work done by the Art Class were on exhibition, and attracted much attention.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with floral features and plants, and through the generous interest of Mr. Thomas F. Galvin we are indebted for their handsome appearance on that evening.

Old friends met and young ones renewed their acquaintanceships at this time, and the Committee were in receipt of numerous letters of gratulations.

At ten o'clock the large multitude dispersed, entirely satisfied with the delightful occasion.

COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY.

As for many years, the Library has been under the immediate care of Richard Ray, Jr.

The following report by him shows the general condition of the Library during the year:—

Number of volumes at the beginning of the year
(April 1, 1903) . . . . .	16,635
Added by gift . . . . .	16
Added by purchase . . . . .	576

Missing volumes returned . . . . .	37

	17,300
Missing and withdrawn . . . . .	<hr/> 171
Number of volumes in Library at present time, .	17,129
Volumes rebound during the year . . . . .	823
Volumes worn out and replaced . . . . .	66
Issued for home reading . . . . .	22,205
Charged (April 1, 1904) as out . . . . .	591
Number of volumes in the Study . . . . .	324

The number of serials received regularly in the Reading-room during the year was one hundred and thirty-seven, divided as follows: nineteen dailies (of which four were duplicated), sixty-four weeklies, one bi-weekly, forty-six monthlies, and seven quarterlies.

Six popular magazines (Atlantic, Century, Harper's, New England, Outing, and Scribner's) were placed in covers, and issued each month for home reading, each member having the privilege of taking for four days one of these magazines in addition to one volume at a time from the Library.

The demand for the above is shown by the following statistics: Harper's, 412; Scribner's, 412; Century, 339; Outing, 218; New England, 121; and Atlantic, 91,—a total circulation of 1,593.

It is difficult to estimate how many of the books were read or consulted in the room, as no statistics were kept of the large number of young men and others who visited the Library for this purpose. The Committee, however, note with pleasure an increased attendance during the winter months.

Every day during the year, including Sundays and holidays, the Library was open for business from 9 A.M. to 10 P.M.

The total circulation for home reading was 22,205.

The largest circulation for any one day was on Saturday, March 5, 1904, 135; the smallest, on Saturday, July 4, 1903, 10.

“General intelligence is the necessary foundation of prosperity and social order; and a library is one of the chief agencies, if not a most potent and far-reaching agency, for promoting general intelligence.”

When the Union Library first came into existence and threw open the door of opportunity to all young men, there is no doubt that the Committee in charge was influenced very largely by the thought of stimulating and increasing the reading habit and at the same time furnishing pleasant and useful knowledge.

Many a man owes his success in life to the influence of good books and the habit of reading formed in youth.

Bearing this fact in mind, the present Library Committee exercise exceptional care and oversight in selecting from the vast number of books published each year such works as will best influence these young men to supplement their education in a wise, practical way, and aid in the development of character.

Each year we call attention to the fact that free access to the shelves has always been considered an important factor in the administration of the Library, and many kind words of appreciation have been spoken or written by those who come in contact with it.

The many minor activities connected with the Library—that is, keeping up the card catalogue, the annual examination, or taking account of stock, the constant vigilance required to keep the books in good condition for service, etc.—have received careful and unremitting attention.

Printed lists of new books added to the Library have been published as supplements to the Union Bulletin; and all books recommended have been considered, and, if deemed advisable by the Committee, purchased and placed on the shelves.

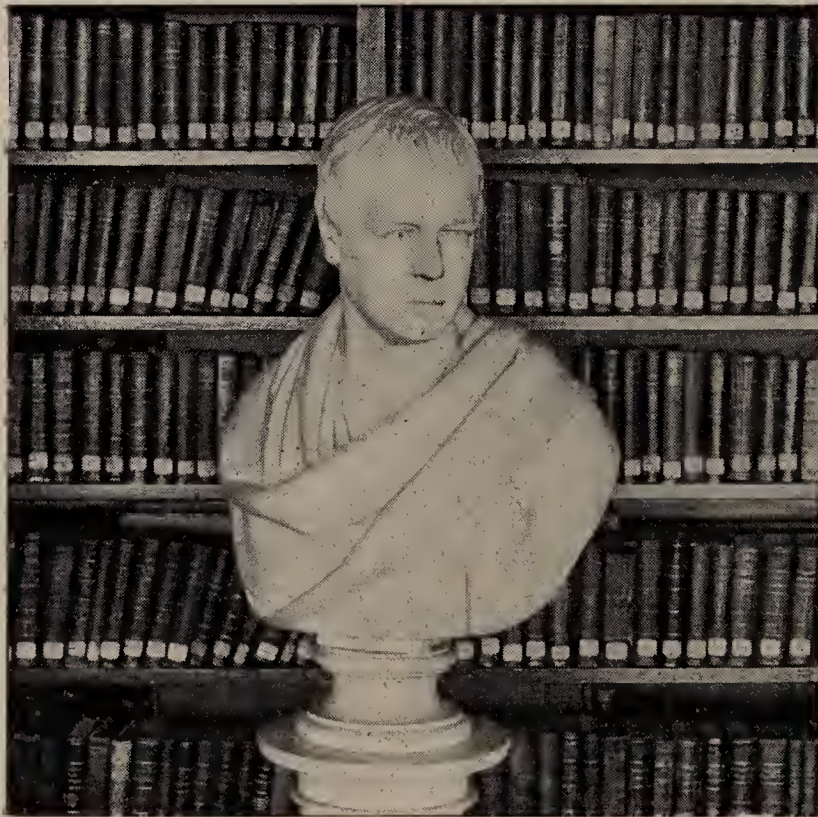

The principal collections in the Library are located as follows:—

COMMITTEE ON ROOMS.

The ordinary repairs of painting and cleaning and all the minor items which go to make up the aggregate of comfort and convenience in the use of the rooms have been thoroughly and watchfully cared for by Herbert C. Bronsdon, Curator, who has discharged his duties in a most efficient and conscientious manner, assisted in the details by Henry C. Herman, Janitor, and Charles C. Shepard, Assistant; David T. Harding, carpenter; Stephen N. Wigglesworth in charge of the stage, when in use; and others.

Richard Ray, Jr., has had charge of the Library, as usual, and has also acted as Assistant to the President in the performance of many literary and clerical duties formerly cared for by Mr. Baldwin.

James H. Dalton has had charge of the membership books and accounts, and Edwin W. Schildknecht has acted as assistant clerk.

All these deserve our thanks for faithful and cheerful service in the interests of the Christian Union.

The following have given satisfactory attention to seating attendants at the various meetings in The Union Hall, acting as ushers when called upon: —

Your Committee would reiterate the notice served upon you last year, that we have nearly or quite reached the limit of our capacity as to convenience and comfort, and ask you to consider the feasibility of enlarging our quarters in order to accommodate to advantage our various classes and to make room for others which could well be added to our list, were there sufficient space to house them.

1. Several more class-rooms could be used.
2. More study-rooms should be added.
3. The correspondence-room should be enlarged.
4. A rearrangement of portions of the Library is most desirable.
5. A swimming-tank in the Gymnasium would be a welcome addition.

6. The accommodations in the rear of the stage should be much increased.

The stage in The Union Hall has been carefully inspected by the proper officials, and it is believed to be thoroughly well protected from fire. Two hand extinguishers are always ready. There are two lines of hose always filled with water, and other needful appliances.

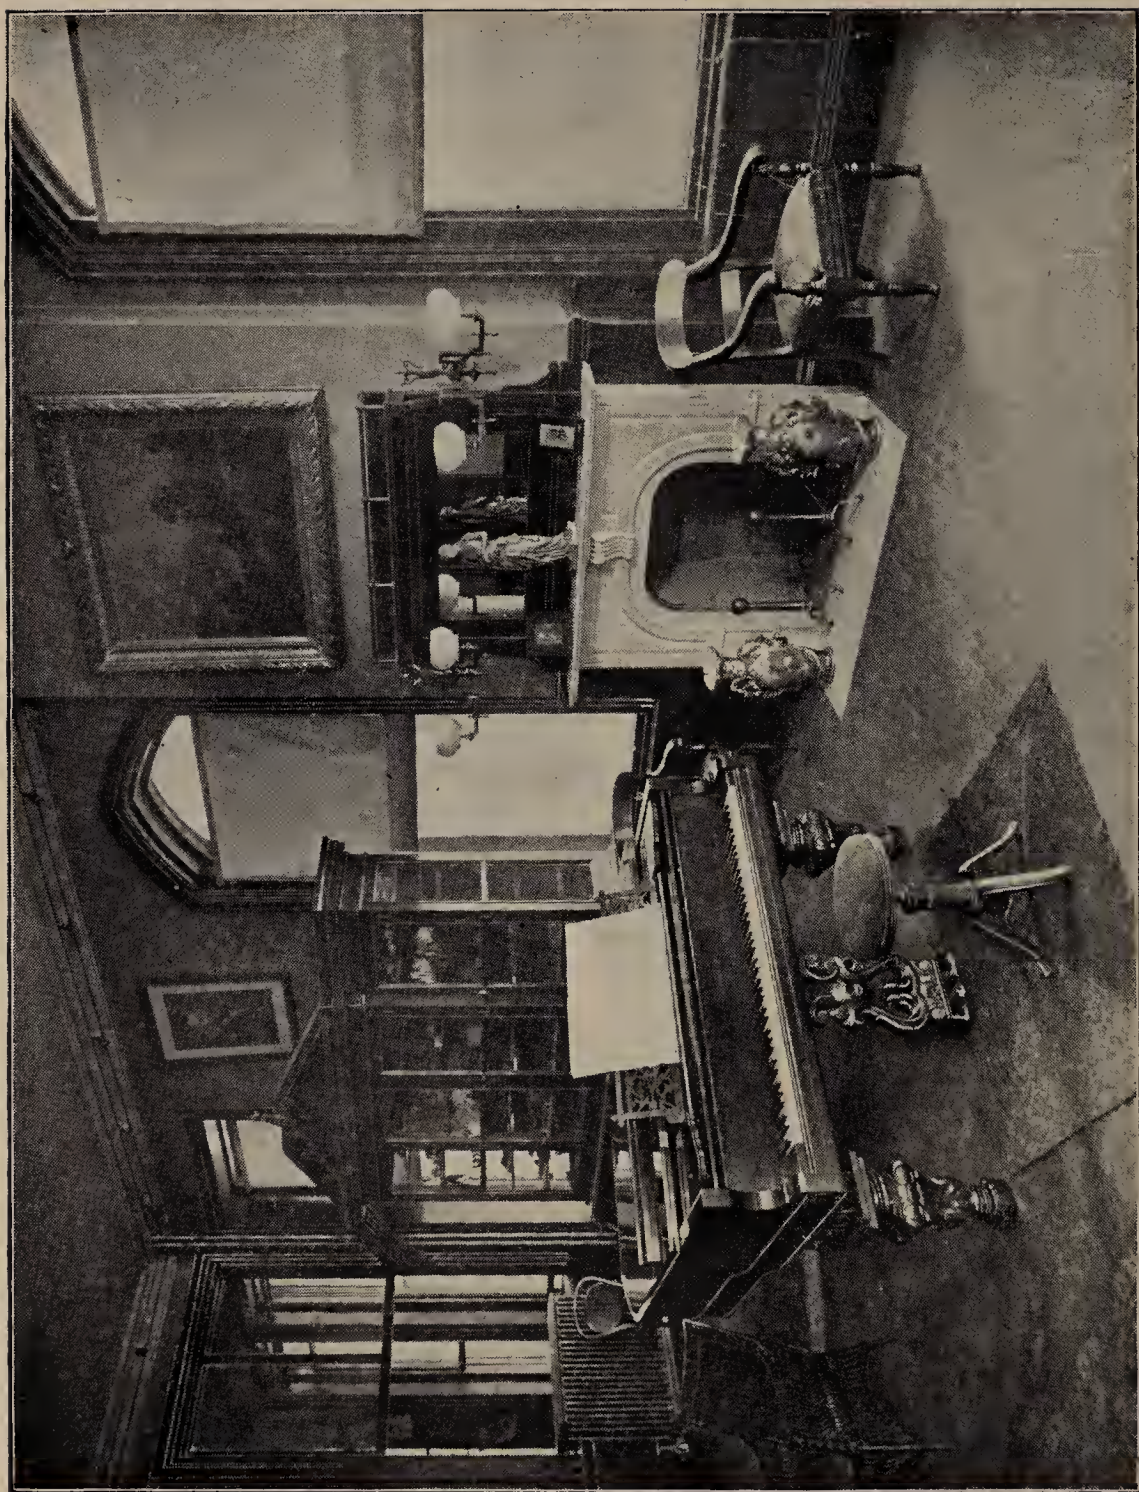

We have just added an asbestos curtain of the most approved sort, ready to drop at the slightest warning.

COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENT ACTION.

"COUNTRY WEEK."

COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENT ACTION.

Benevolent Action is the governing principle of our Union and the fundamental inspiration of all our work. This great organization was started by the "Benevolent Action" of a few, and has been continued by that of many. The Union, however, is not a Charity Bureau. Its benevolence is personal, neighborly, Christian; and its help is offered in a fraternal spirit, not a patronizing one. While we believe that feeling to animate all the activities of the Union, our particular Committee has in charge certain specialties which may be briefly mentioned.

The Country Week naturally heads the list. As every one should know, it provides country vacations in the summer for some of the city children who would otherwise have no respite from the pavement and the brick, giving them a good deal of a very profitable kind of pleasure and affording one of the most satisfactory opportunities for the generosity of the good friends who support this enterprise.

The season of 1903 opened with a conference between the "Country Week" Committee and the friends who had received the children in their country homes.

This was held at the Union Rooms, on June 6. There was a large attendance, and the occasion proved a most happy one to all concerned.

The statistics of 1903 are as follows: —

Number sent into the country . . . . .	2,895
Cash on hand April 1, 1903 . . . . .	$622.50
Receipts . . . . .	17,844.43
	<hr/> $18,466.93
Expenses . . . . .	17,057.09
	<hr/> $1,409.84
Balance March 31, 1904 . . . . .

(This balance is larger than is usually carried forward, owing to a bequest lately received; and the expense item includes an investment of over $2,000.)

Here are the names of the faithful Committee to whose devoted and freely given labor so much of the success of this undertaking is due: —

Miss MARY E. PIERCE.	Miss EDITH R. BLANCHARD.
Miss LOUISE HOWE.	Mrs. B. F. STONE, Jr.
Miss C. I. FIELD.	FRANK F. MCLEOD.
ROBERT A. WOODS.	Mrs. CHARLES L. BURRILL.
Miss MABEL WILBUR.	Miss EDITH KENDALL.
Mrs. ROGER W. BABSON.	Mrs. M. P. WHITE.
Mrs. ROBERT W. NEFF.	HERBERT COPELAND.
Mrs. N. D. CLARK.

Miss E. S. JOHNSON, Secretary.

The usual Special Report of the Country Week work, with its attractive pictures and interesting details, may be had on application.

Miss E. S. Johnson has continued in charge of this work, and has also given her efficient aid in the other departments of our Benevolent Action.

Rides for Invalids has for many years been a "Benevolent Action" in which the Union has taken a special pride. The title tells its own story, and many an invalid will say that it is an interesting one.

CORNER OF PARLOR. "WATERSTON COLLECTION" OF BOOKS.

The money placed in our trust by generous friends is used to give outings to the sick and delicate by carriage drives or car or boat rides.

It furnishes conveyance to and from the hospitals, gives our worn and weary friends a sight of green fields and blue waters, takes little children to the parks, and in every practical way tries to alleviate the suffering and cheer the sorrowing.

The past season shows these figures:—

Carriage drives furnished . . . . .	1,528
Harbor tickets . . . . .	1,257
Car tickets . . . . .	13,816
Total . . . . .	16,601
Cash on hand April 1, 1903 . . . . .	$1,055.21
Receipts . . . . .	2,480.60
	$3,535.81
Expenses . . . . .	2,448.17
Balance March 31, 1904 . . . . .	$1,087.64

The Thanksgiving Dinner was spread in The Union Hall on November 26 for the thirty-fifth time, and was attended by about two hundred of our members who on that day found themselves, for various reasons, separated from the home festivities.

The dinner was served at 1 P.M. on three long tables, handsomely decorated, and was presided over by the President and Vice-President of the Union, Messrs. Baldwin and Sprague. Attractive menu pamphlets were distributed, containing "America," Mr. Baldwin's Hymn, and three Thanksgiving proclamations, the first being one made by Governor Shute in 1721, and the other two those of President Roosevelt and Governor Bates.

After the dinner Mr. Baldwin's hymn, "Hail, happy day, this social day!" was sung, and speeches followed by Booker T. Washington, Rev. E. A. Horton, Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D., President Baldwin, Vice-President Sprague, other members of the Board of Government, and several of the young men at the tables. Representatives were present from England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Germany, Italy, Turkey, India, Sweden, Russia, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and fifteen of the United States; and most of these were heard from.

The exercises closed with the singing of "America," and the usual barrel of Baldwin apples was emptied as the guests left the hall to visit other departments of the Union.

The Committee of Arrangements consisted of George N. Faught, Arthur V. Howland, and Herbert C. Bronsdon, of the members, and William H. Baldwin, Charles L. Burrill, and William H. Brown, of the Board of Government. Music was furnished by The Union Orchestra, and generous donations were received, as follows: J. Reed Whipple & Co., Parker House, poultry and plum puddings; also from Young's Hotel, poultry; George G. Hall, Adams House, poultry, pastry, cake; S. S. Pierce & Co., dessert in full variety; P. & J. Besse, ice-cream; Jones, McDuffee & Stratton Company, use of crockery and glassware; Cobb, Bates & Yerxa Company, sugar, butter, etc.; David Whiting & Sons, butter and milk; Oriental Tea Company, coffee; Hiram Ricker & Sons Company, Poland water; George H. Ellis Company, neat and attractive bills of fare; flowers in part by Wax Brothers; cooking and preparing vegetables by Murray and Conway, Brigham's Hotel; also voluntary cash contributions from friends.

The Christmas Festival was merrily celebrated on the afternoon of Saturday, January 2, before a hallful of happy children.

Mr. Charles L. Burrill, on behalf of the Union and the Committee, welcomed the little ones in a cordial speech; and a varied entertainment followed.

Mr. F. J. Howard gave an amusing exhibition of motion pictures, Mr. Harrell showed his skill as a magician, and Professor Stockton was the ventriloquist.

There was a tree, and Mr. Franklin H. Richardson waited upon it in the guise of Santa Claus.

Cake and ice-cream galore were served to the hungry but happy crowd by a volunteer corps of young men and women, and music was furnished by The Union Orchestra and by the children themselves, whose lusty singing is always a lively feature of these entertainments.

On leaving the Union, each child received a package of carefully chosen articles calculated to carry the joy of the Festival far into the winter. A good deal of hard work was required in preparing for this occasion, and the names of those who did it follow. Here are the statistics:—

Number of children receiving packages . . . . .	682
Cash on hand April 1, 1903 . . . . .	$190.49
Receipts . . . . .	1,918.75

	$2,109.24
Expenditures . . . . .	1,966.80

The Employment Bureau has received the usual careful attention from Mr. Bronsdon and has rendered its valuable services with no charges to either employer or employee. As in all similar offices, many of the applicants are untrained and inefficient, which explains the excess in "Applications for employment"; but care is taken to send the right man to the right place, and the results are indicated below.

Applications for employment . . . . .	531
Applications for employees . . . . .	194
Sent to places . . . . .	223
Places filled . . . . .	133

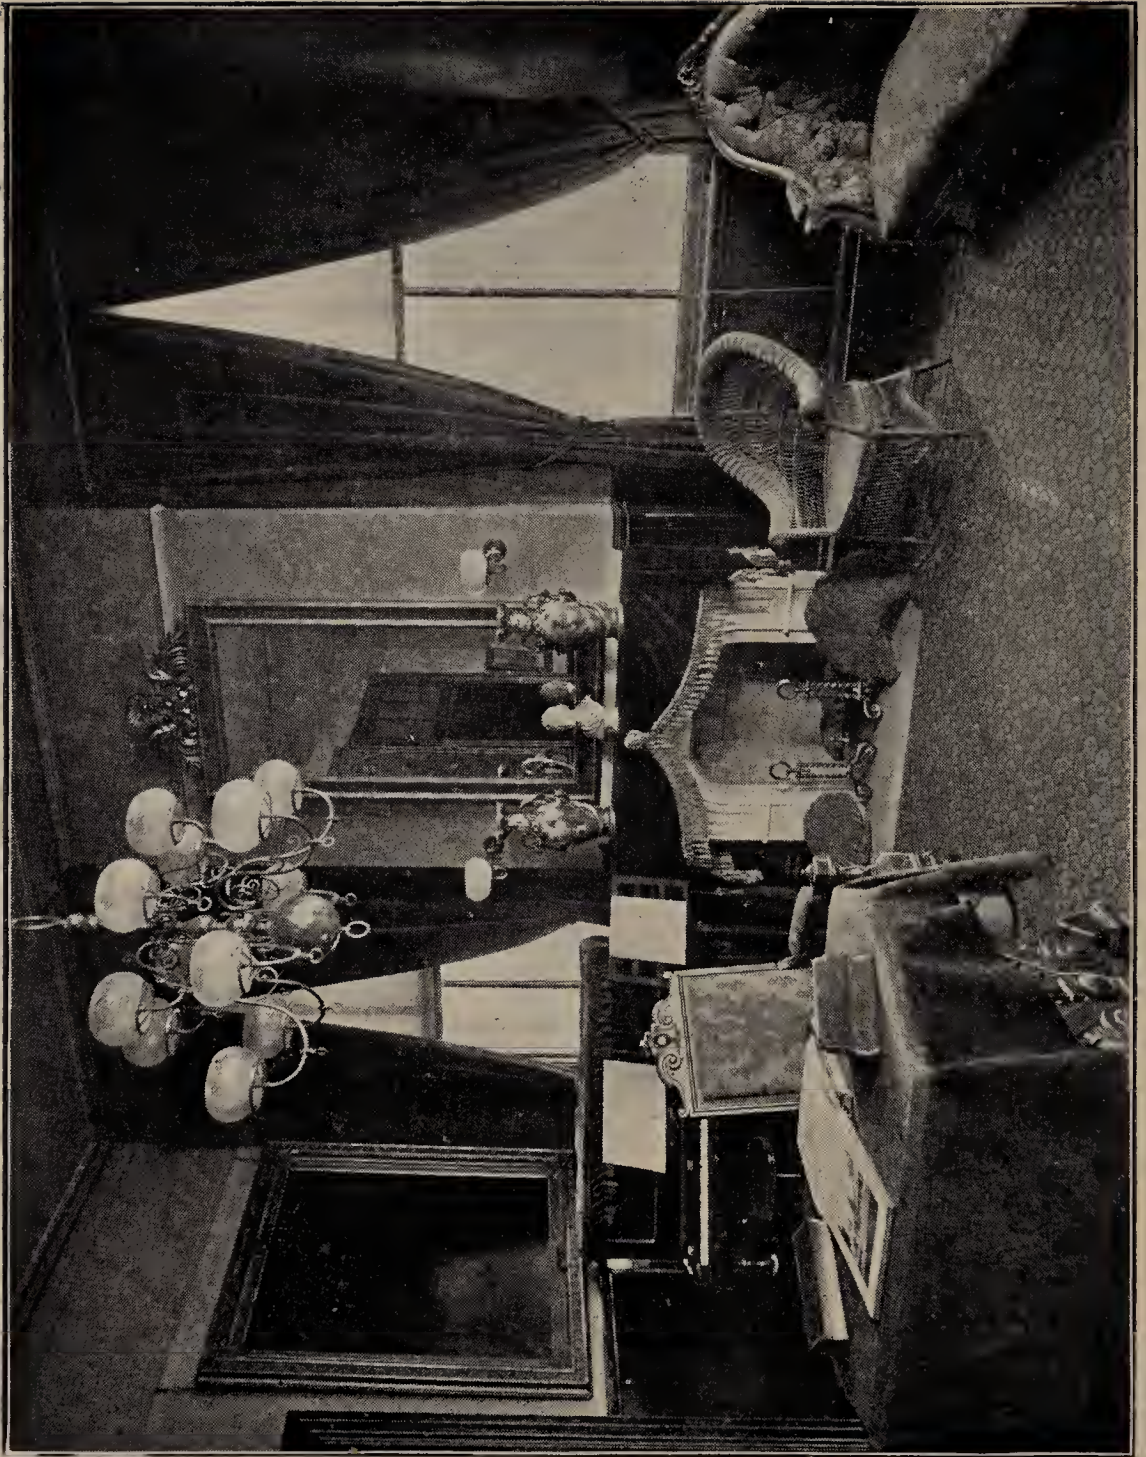

Mr. Bronsdon has charge also of the Union's wardrobe, where garments from those who have a surplus are given to those who lack. Many a poor fellow has thus been made presentable, and no publicity has attended the friendly action.

The Board and Lodging lists are carefully kept up and are open to all, the sick are visited when so desired, and in various other ways endeavors are made to render this department of service to our members and to mankind.

EDWARD A. CHURCH, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.

SOUTH-WEST CORNER OF PARLOR.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.

“Man has two sides to his nature, one looking out on what is, the other on the better that might be,”—one looking out on the lower side of life, the other on the higher.

It is to the better and higher side of a young man's nature that this Committee, from the very beginning of its existence, has concentrated its energies, placing before the young men and others who come within its reach and influence such opportunities for religious and moral instruction as will materially assist in the formation of character.

Every Sunday evening during the past year, except during July and August, public religious services were held in The Union Hall. They were conducted by clergymen of various religious denominations, and consisted of congregational singing, responsive reading from the Psalms or Scriptures, and other exercises, with a choice programme of musical selections and a brief address or sermon.

Special services in observance of “red-letter days”—namely, New Year's, Washington's Birthday, Easter, Patriots' Day, Memorial Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, etc.—were held on or near their respective dates.

Once a month a Sacred Illustrated Lecture upon some topic of religious interest was given, fully illustrated by stereopticon views, particulars of which will be found in the complete list of services following this report.

The Committee take this opportunity to publicly express their thanks and appreciation to the clergymen and others who have so kindly given their valued services, and also to those musical friends who have during the year favored the Union.

Vesper Cards have been issued each month, giving the names of speakers, with their subjects, music, and other information, which have been freely distributed to members and friends of the Union.

Your Committee are always happy to provide members with seats in any church of the city which they desire to attend free, or at a moderate expense, and render such other services as are in its power.

Summer List of Clergymen.

As for several years past, a public invitation was extended to the clergymen of the different religious denominations who were to be in Boston or vicinity during the summer vacation season to send or leave their addresses with the President of the Union.

A full list was carefully prepared, which was freely consulted, and proved to be of great convenience to many persons who had occasion to desire the services of a clergyman during that time.

COMMITTEE ON PHYSICAL CULTURE.

THE GYMNASIUM.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The Union Gymnasium.

The Committee on Physical Culture again takes pleasure in recording a most prosperous year in the Gymnasium. All of the available room in the building which can be devoted to the purposes of this department has been utilized, and the equipment has been kept in thorough order and up to date.

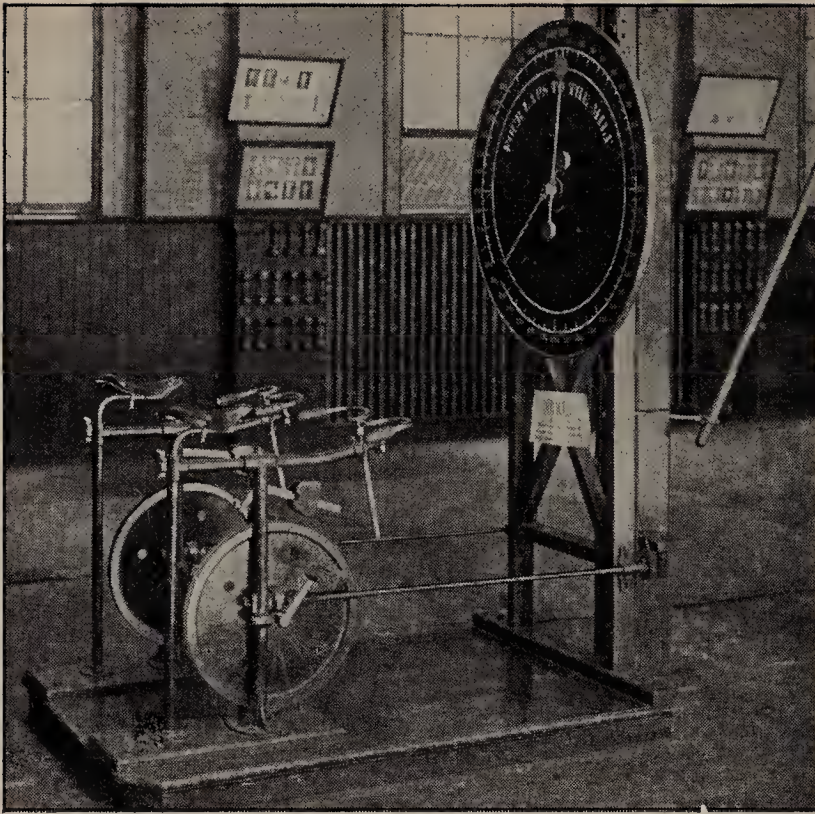

The very large attendance, especially in the evening, has often severely taxed the floor space; but the classes and exercises have been so arranged that overcrowding has been obviated as far as possible.

The Committee has several improvements in mind, which must await the time when an enlargement of the building, which is a pressing necessity, will admit of their being carried out.

On April 1, 1904, there were 1,319 members, the high-water mark for the year being 1,405, the record number in the history of the Union Gymnasium, now the largest in Boston.

This is a most gratifying showing, and proves beyond question the usefulness of a modern gymnasium, conducted on scientific and hygienic principles, and fully equipped with the most improved apparatus, designed for the rational physical development of men of all ages and conditions.

BICYCLE RACING MACHINE.

Class-work.

This important feature was almost unknown a generation ago; but it is now recognized as one of the most important and beneficial kinds of gymnasium work.

It is an admirable form of exercise, its simplicity appealing especially to beginners, and its short duration to those whose limited time necessitates a brief visit to the Gymnasium. The great benefit of the class-work is shown in the general physical improvement of our members at the end of the year.

The classes are divided into the following: free movement, dumb bell, Indian club, high bars, parallel bars, German horse, vaulting and tumbling. The instructors and leaders are: Superintendent German F. Hoffman, Assistant Superintendent Everett F. Parks, and Messrs. Walter S. Robbins, B. J. Weston, E. W. Steele, Albert H. Ross, Maurice H. Thorner, Walter T. Speirs, E. H. Donohoe, T. L. Owens. Special Classes for Boys are held every Saturday morning through the season.

The music for the class-work has been in charge of our pianist, Mr. Harry Walton, whose familiarity with the special requirements of this position has contributed in no small measure to the attractiveness of these drills.

The handsome white marble Hand-ball Court has proved the wisdom of its introduction, as it has been in constant use, both winter and summer; and the exhilarating exercise which the game affords, with its attending feature of friendly competition, has been of great physical benefit to large numbers of young men.

Bath-rooms.

Among the important features of all gymnasiums are the bathing facilities.

The Bathrooms, both general and private, are models of construction and cleanliness, being under constant supervision by a special attendant. They are thoroughly equipped with the latest appliances in this line, which make hot and cold water bathing delightful and invigorating.

MARBLE HAND-BALL COURT.

GROUP OF GYMNASIUM MEMBERS.

A handsome bath-room, constructed of white marble, has been placed adjacent to the dressing-rooms, at the easterly end of the Gymnasium, thereby adding to the convenience of the occupants of lockers in that section.

The Dressing-rooms now contain a total of 1,381 ventilated lockers ; and four private dressing-rooms, provided with extra large lockers, meet the special needs of many of our patrons.

Lighting.

The lighting of the Gymnasium by the arc and incandescent systems, and the introduction of electric fans, have resulted in a great improvement in the illumination and ventilation.

A GENERAL BATH-ROOM.

Exhibition. One exhibition was given during the year, the programme consisting of novel and attractive features which gave practical illustration of the advancement and proficiency of the members.

Our Superintendent, Mr. Hoffman, and his assistant, Mr. Parks, have both largely contributed to the effectiveness and popularity of the class-work and the general gymnasium work; and they have also given personal care and instruction to such individual members as sought their counsel.

The Bicycle-room, originally opened as an experiment, has become a fixture, and is used daily (except Bicycle-room. Sundays) by members of the Gymnasium and Union alike. This room has a convenient entrance from the street, and the checking of wheels is free.

INDIVIDUAL BATH-ROOM.

Massage.

The massage treatment remains in care of our expert masseur, Mr. Edwin F. Harding; and his services have been extensively availed of by those who find this special treatment beneficial to their individual needs.

Physical Examinations.

Special attention is called to the opportunity extended all Gymnasium members for a free physical examination by our Medical Director, Dr. William R. Woodbury.

The Medical Director's office has been recently supplied with a complete outfit of the most approved appliances for the testing and measuring of those who take physical examinations, these examinations being also in accordance with the Civil Service rules and methods.

When a young man joins a gymnasium, he should be guided so as to exercise intelligently; i.e., his exercising should be adapted to his individual needs. The larger percentage of our members avail themselves of Dr. Woodbury's advice, and at the end of the term they are re-examined to ascertain exactly what progress they have made.

The report of our Medical Director, Dr. William R. Woodbury, is herewith appended in full.

REPORT OF DR. WILLIAM R. WOOD- BURY, (Harvard) Medical Director.

BOSTON, March 31, 1904.

TO MR. WALTER H. DUGAN, Chairman of Committee on Physical Culture :

Dear Sir,—The Medical Director of the Union
Gymnasium respectfully submits the following report : —

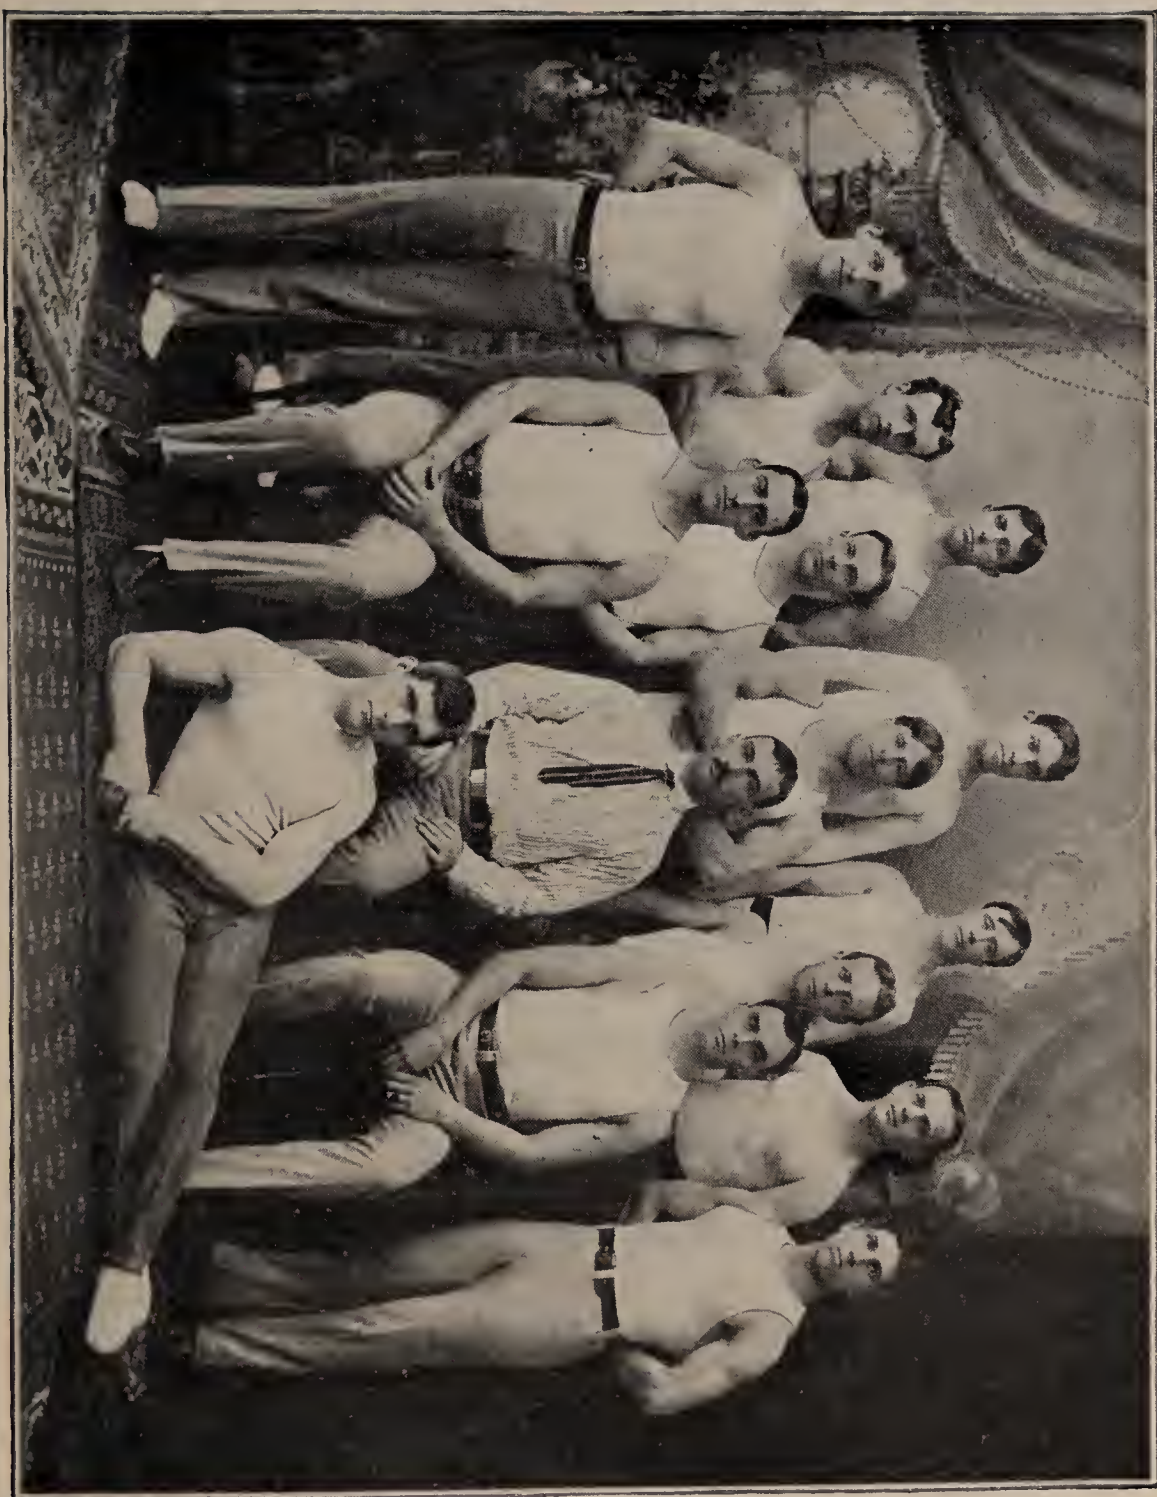

In the office of the Medical Director the Union now has the complete records of the measurements and strength-tests of eight thousand four hundred and fifty-five men and boys. During the past year three hundred and eighty-seven gymnasium members presented themselves for a physical examination. In addition to a careful examination every effort was made to assist these members to carry out their gymnasium work intelligently and successfully. A considerable number presented themselves for re-examination, and those who had been faithful and regular in their attendance at the Gymnasium were rewarded by a gratifying improvement in their physical condition. Their testimony, to a man, was that they were in much better health. "I never felt better in my life," said more than one of these men. Particular benefit came to the members whose work keeps them indoors and in faulty and unhealthful sitting or standing postures.

The second year of the card system for recording the measurements and strength-tests of those examined by the Medical Director has given added proof of its success. It is as successful in every respect as it was hoped it would be, and it has helped extend the usefulness of the Gymnasium.

The Medical Director desires to thank the Committee on Physical Culture for the new wall-cabinet for the strength-testing apparatus, and also to thank them for their generous and hearty co-operation.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE VI.

"Duties of the Board of Directors.

"It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors,—

"First, To provide for the use of the Society suitable rooms, centrally located in the city of Boston.

"Second, To provide and keep in said rooms such books, periodicals, and newspapers as will, in their judgment, promote the object of the Society.

"Third, To make such arrangements for social religious exercises as they shall deem practicable and conducive to the best interests of the Society."

A BRIEF HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THIS SOCIETY.

---

1851. The Boston Young Men's Christian Union was instituted in 1851, and incorporated under its present name in 1852.

Sept. 17, 1851, fifty-two years ago, the foundation of this society was laid.

After a successful existence of twelve years its work was temporarily discontinued, in consequence of the interruption caused by the Civil War.

REORGANIZATION, APRIL 15, 1868.

The work was resumed again in 1868 under its present auspices, and rooms were provided at No. 12 West Street. These soon proving too small for the purposes of the society, larger ones were taken in the fall of 1868 at what was then 300 Washington Street, corner of Suffolk Place, where the whole building above the first floor was eventually occupied.

These premises also proving inadequate, it became necessary again to move and enlarge the accommodations. A suitable lot of land having been found, a public appeal was made in the spring of 1874 for funds with which to purchase the land and erect a building for the society. By the generosity of its friends the necessary amount with which to begin the work was speedily secured.

NEW BUILDING.

The corner-stone of the new building was laid at noon of Sept. 16, 1875, in the presence of members of the Trustees and of the Board of Government, and of a large number of interested friends.

COMPLETION AND DEDICATION.

The present building was completed and dedicated to the use of the Union March 15, 1876. By the munificent legacy of eighty thousand dollars from the late Joseph B. Eaton, a Life Member, supplemented by the generous gifts of many friends, the society was enabled in 1879 (December 10) to hold its building free from all indebtedness.

The enlarged facilities not only increased the power of the Union in various fields of benevolent work at home and abroad, but the greatly augmented membership tested the building to its utmost capacity.

ENLARGEMENT AND REDEDICATION.

In 1882, on account of the constantly increasing membership of the Union, and the growing and pressing need of still larger accommodations, the society 1883. found that the building was still not spacious enough, and an enlargement was deemed necessary. An appeal was made to its numerous friends, who promptly responded; and the addition to the building was made and dedicated May 28, 1883.

The extension has a frontage of seventy-two feet on Boylston Square, so that now the Union Building has light from all four sides, and covers over eleven thousand feet.

Aims and Objects.

The chief aim of the officers of the society is to make the Rooms, to as great an extent as possible, a home for young men; to offer every possible attraction in the shape of books, papers, games, pleasant companions, classes, public religious services, lectures, amateur and musical entertainments, and other means of instruction and recreation.

Without losing sight of its special work, the Union has always been ready to discharge its duty to the community by such general benevolent work as may come within its scope.

In this branch of outside work the officers have been greatly assisted by members, and committees of ladies who have labored indefatigably and successfully. Among these special objects may be mentioned the "Christmas and New Year's Festival for Needy Children," the "Rides for Invalids," and "Country Week" for poor children.

In addition to these are the occasions when, at times of disaster abroad, the Rooms have been made a depot for the receipt of contributions, and a source for the distribution of relief.

Central Location.

The building is very centrally located, being situated on Boylston Street, corner of Tamworth Street, near Tremont Street overlooking the Common, and has also a frontage on Boylston Square, with an entrance opposite Washington Street.

It is open to light and air on every side, is near the entrance to the subway, corner of Boylston and Tremont Streets, and nearly all the various lines of electric cars either pass the door or near by, on Tremont and Washington Streets.

Reception Room and Office.

The Reception Room is at the head of the first flight of stairs from Boylston Street, with side windows opening upon Tamworth Street, formerly called Lowell Place. The members and all other persons visiting the Union enter here, and from this room pass to the other portions of the building occupied by the society.

It contains the desk of the Curator, Librarian, and Book-keeper, and facilities for checking the garments of members. It is also supplied with tables for checkers and dominos (for use after five o'clock P.M.), an aquarium, and the leading Boston daily newspapers on file.

The business of the society is here transacted, strangers and others desiring information are received, and such attentions are afforded as are in the power of the Union to furnish.

It is estimated that in the more active season (October to May) from 1,600 to 2,200 young men and others visit the Union Rooms daily.

This room is open every day, including Sundays from eight o'clock A.M. to ten o'clock P.M.

The Sitting Room.

The Union Sitting Room, connected with this room, fronts on Boylston Street, and commands a fine view of the Common. It is pleasantly furnished, has a piano, and is intended to be a social room for members.

Chess Room.

Adjoining the Sitting Room is the Chess Room, especially devoted to chess-playing, and open to members after two o'clock P.M.

An additional room for chess and checkers has also been provided (Room No. 5).

President and ## Directors' Room.

The President and Directors' Room, connected with the Reception Room in the rear, is used for the business purposes of the society. It commands a view of the entire floor.

The Library.

The Library and Reading Room is in the L, and is also connected with the Reception Room. It is lighted with windows on three sides, and is furnished with a library of over seventeen thousand volumes, with the leading magazines, religious papers of all denominations, illustrated weekly, and daily papers.

The Library Room has a capacity for from forty thousand to fifty thousand volumes, and is the largest reading-room in Boston, with the exception of the new Public Library, being one hundred and twelve feet long, and having five thousand feet of floor space.

Members can at all times take books from the shelves and read them in the room, the Library thus becoming so attractive that many are induced to spend their time in reading who would not do so unless the books were placed, as it were, in their hands. Books can be taken for home reading by first having them charged at the Librarian's desk.

Correspondence.

Facilities for correspondence are furnished to members, in connection with the Library.

The Study.

The Union Study, opening from the Library, is supplied with books of reference, accessible to members at all times.

Toilet Rooms.

The Toilet Room, with bathing-rooms attached, is down a rear flight of stairs from the Reception Room.

The Gymnasium.

The Gymnasium, another flight below, on the ground floor, is spacious, and lighted on every side.

The improvements in 1883 added nearly three thousand feet of floor space, so that it is now one of the largest and the most complete gymnasiums in the country.

It is 136 feet in length, and covers 6,200 superficial feet, exclusive of dressing-rooms, or, in all, over 10,000 feet.

It is provided with bath-rooms, large dressing-rooms, and is furnished with a great variety of modern apparatus of the most approved patterns.

The dressing-rooms are fitted with commodious lockers, both free and private, a slight charge being made for the latter; and the members are entitled to the use of the shower, sponge, douche, needle, and tub baths, which are provided with hot and cold water.

The Hand-ball Court, in the Gymnasium, has a smoothly finished marble wall especially adapted to ## Instruction in Physical Exercise.

Robbins, Bertram J. Weston, E. W. Steele, Albert H. Ross, Maurice H. Thorner, Walter T. Speirs, E. H. Donohoe, and T. L. Owens, Special Instructors.

Terms. Members of the Union become entitled, by the payment of seven dollars per year, to the use of the Gymnasium at all times when open.

Four dollars per year entitle them to its use after seven o'clock P.M.

Bicycle-check Room.

A Bicycle-check Room, with an entrance on Lowell Court, has been opened for the Free use of members of the Union.

Committee and Class Rooms.

Committee Rooms connect with the parlor and each other by wide doors, and are used, as well as other smaller rooms, as occasion requires.

Five large and three small Class Rooms were gained by the addition to the building in 1883.

The Union Hall.

The Union Hall is reached by two easy flights from Boylston Street, as well as by a spiral staircase from the Reception Room, and has an exit on Boylston Square. It is furnished with folding seats, neatly upholstered in leather, and is capable, with the gallery, of seating five hundred and two people.

There is a ticket office on the street floor, which may be used in connection with this hall, when desired.

The Stage.

The stage, which was enlarged and improved in 1883, is thirty-six feet wide and thirty-nine feet deep, with a proscenium twenty-one feet, and is the largest private stage in the city.

The Union Hall is admirably adapted for concerts, lectures, and dramatic performances, for which it is provided with new and appropriate scenery. It is thoroughly ventilated, and has the incandescent system of electric lighting. Connected with the stage are large and convenient anterooms and dressing-rooms, with a separate entrance from Boylston Square.

The hall is used for religious services, lectures, entertainments, and other public purposes of the society, and is also let for similar purposes, when not used by the Union.

Eaton Hall. Eaton Hall is connected with The Union Hall by double folding doors, so that the two halls may be used together, if desired, and it is also used for the ordinary purposes of the society. It will seat about one hundred persons. This hall was named Eaton Hall in memory of the late Joseph B. Eaton.

Norcross Hall. Norcross Hall, which was gained by the addition to the building, is lighted with windows opening on Boylston Square. It has a large stage and anteroom, and has a seating capacity of two hundred and seventy-five. This hall was named Norcross Hall in memory of the late Hon. Otis Norcross.

The Parlor. The Union Parlor, reached from the Reception Room by the spiral staircase or by the main stairway, is in front, with a view of the Common. This cheerful and attractive homelike room contains a piano, pictures, etc., and is furnished with appropriate fittings, and open to the members from 7.30 to 9.45 o'clock each evening, except Sunday. (The Sitting Room is open at all times.)

The Employment Bureau aids members, and others, in getting employment. No charge in any way is made for this service. All persons who can furnish employment, or who know of vacancies to be filled, confer a great favor by communicating with this Bureau.

The Boarding House Department endeavors to provide good boarding-places, at a moderate price, for those desiring them.

A Committee on Churches provides members with seats in any church of the city which they desire to attend, free or at a moderate expense, and renders such other services as are in its power.

A Committee on Clothing attends to the distribution of clothing, given for the purpose, to worthy young men needing such assistance.

A Committee visits and cares for members when sick.

Benevolent and charitable work of various kinds is carried on by committees of members of the Union and the Ladies' Committee.

At the annual meeting in the year 1898, four directors shall be elected, each to serve three years; four directors, each to serve two years; and four directors, each to serve one year; and at each annual meeting thereafter four directors shall be elected, each to serve three years.

Immediately after the annual meeting in each year the Board of Directors shall meet and organize, and shall choose from their number a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Society for the ensuing year. All the above officers so elected shall serve for the terms respectively named and until their respective successors are elected.

Vacancies occurring from any cause in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the Board of Government, and any director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting and the election of his successor.

Vacancies occurring in the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall be filled for the remainder of their terms by the Board of Directors.

Third, To make such arrangements for social religious exercises as they shall deem practicable and conducive to the best interests of the Society.

Fourth, To induce the members of the Society to connect themselves with some of the religious societies in the vicinity, according always to their denominational preferences, and especially to seek out and impart information, and render aid, assistance, and encouragement to those who come as strangers to the city, striving to guard them against temptation, to surround them with Christian influences, and to interest them in the cultivation of a religious life.

ARTICLE VII.

Meetings.

The annual meeting of the Society for the choice of officers shall be held on the second Wednesday in April; and other regular meetings shall be held on the second Wednesdays of July, October, and January.
